

one game this season. An operation will be performed in New York in a few days in an attempt to relieve Hans' trouble.

Jack Britton got in bad in Philadelphia last night when he stalled in his scheduled six-round go with Pal Moore. So raw was the Chicagoan's work that the referee stopped the so-called battle in the fourth frame. The weights were given out as 135 pounds each, but Britton weighed nearer 145.

OUR EXACT ARTIST

LOOK OUT FOR A FLY
IN THE BUTTER!

Ethel, who was ten years old, was studying her reader, and learned that fish are placed in brine before they are dried and prepared for sale. After explaining that brine is very salt water, the teacher asked why the fish were placed in it. Ethel's face was illumined with sudden understanding, and she promptly replied, "Because they are used to salt water!"

SASSIETY COLYUM

Great gloom in the palatial home of Mrs. De Bungtung on Lake Shore drive. Fifi, the French poodle, has the mange.

It is rumored also Mrs. Dofunny-Dufunny's pet lap dog strayed into the poorer quarters, associated with common doggies and came home with a full set of fleas.

Mr. John Artha' Johnsing, one of the South Side's prominent citizens, will make a social call to the U. S. court tomorrow. The judge is very much interested in a lovely diamond necklace Mr. Johnsing brought home from Europe.

Mr. Ed Barrett will decide how long he will stay in his new home at Joliet next Saturday.

Mr. Robert Webb has had a disagreement with his host, Judge Kersten.

Mr. Upton Free Love Sinclair is going to get married—with benefit of clergy and a U. S. senator as uncle-in-law.

Mayor Harrison is arranging for a party for the school children of Chicago.

The principal game at this party will be one in which the children will do the work that the mayor's friends, Frank Solon, hasn't the time to attend to.

Mr. Solon's social duties as a political czar have kept him so busy lately that he has not had time to bother about the condition of the streets.

Mayor Harrison will be 53 years old tomorrow. It is rumored the mayor's godfather, Mr. Andrew M. Lawrence, intends to present him with a box of bonbons.

Willis George Emerson, lately a well-known leader of the Republican party, has entered a new sphere of activities. He is president of the baby farm.

If Belgian workers can get suffrage by quitting work, why can't British women?